

Partners Springs Gold Project

Potential sleeping giant in central northern Nevada, USA

PARTNERS GOLD
COMPANY INC.

January 15th, 2026

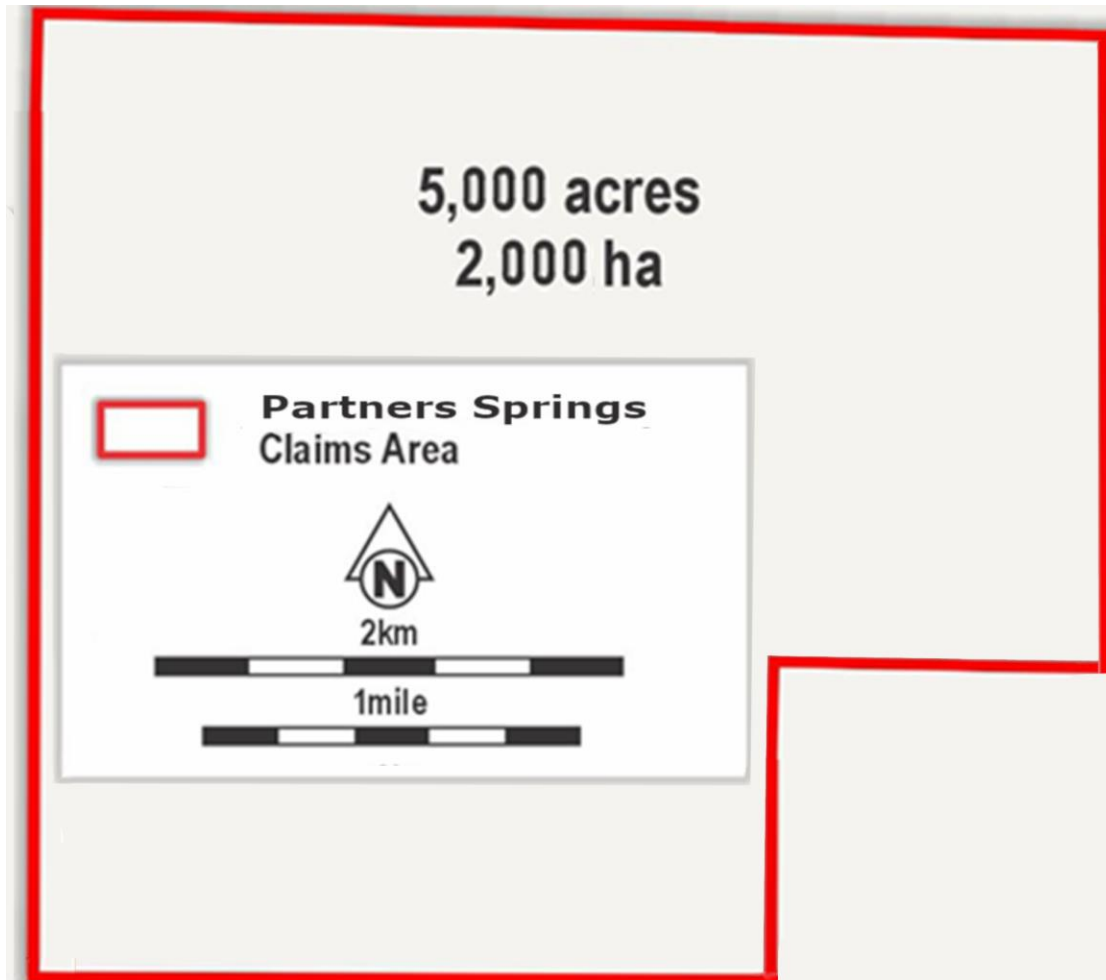

By Regina Molloy, Exploration Manager

NOTE: Further information will only be disclosed upon signature of Partners CNDA, inclusive of a 1-mile surrounding no compete clause valid for 1 year.

1. Executive Summary

- Excellent gold investment opportunity, in the right market.
- The project generator has 45 years in the USA geothermal power industry which has led to the creation of an epithermal data room now used by Partners Gold Co. ("PGC") to explore for gold in the highly prospective and minable jurisdiction of Nevada, USA.
- The claims for 5,000 acres on public lands managed by the Bureau Land Management (BLM). The defined exploration target model measures 3.7 x 1.2 miles (6 x 2 kms).
- Gold detected over significant areas in clay with the highest value 0.094ppm (94ppb).
- Samples were taken along lines where samples were taken 100m apart over 1.49 miles x 0.68 miles and 1.0-mile x 0.87 miles have fire-assayed samples of continuous gold.
- The Partners Springs project is an analogue of the nearby Sleeper mine (>2.5M oz Au) with the potential for a large high grade gold system in untested prospect in Nevada, USA. Gold in clay may have the potential for a free- dig, heap leach starter pit!
- Attractive gold environment: 4-mile mafic dike and evidence of deep magmatic fluids similar to the Sleeper and Sandman deposits. Targets: north-south 3D modelled faults, Tertiary volcanic, Auld Land Syne sediments, granodiorite.
- Great technical dataset worth $2M
 - airborne magnetics flown in 2021-2022 at 400m flight line spacing, this data was then subset and reprocessed by PGC
 - historical geothermal drill holes (not assayed for gold)
 - gravity depth to basin modelling, ground gravity and ground magnetics
 - magnetotelluric survey
 - seismic lines
 - 3D interpretations in Leapfrog
- PGC is a private Delaware Co., clean, no debt. Besides local Tulsa shareholders Ronald Barr, President, John Brock, oil, & John H Williams Jr., geothermal project investor -- Dave Beling, past CEO of Bullfrog Gold (Anglo Gold), Beatty, NV, & Brian Fairbank, past CEO of Nevada Geothermal, Blue Mt geothermal also are shareholders.
- A 1 mile, 1-year confidential non-disclosure agreement must be signed before further information can be shared. Upon execution, a full 40-page report will be made available summarizing the entire asset and why it's drill ready.
- Note: The Company is private, hence there is no market for the shares nor any plans to register shares with SEC. This is not a document from which an investment decision can be made. This document is not intended to comport with any national or state regulations.

2. Land Position & Ownership

The map above and all maps herein: The exact claim block shape is withheld until the CNDA is signed.

Land Position 8 mi²

- Large claim holding securing a potentially large gold system. If gold is discovered below surface clays, there is potential for a large gold system.
- The claims on BLM land are in central northern Nevada – close to other large gold deposits.
- 100% owned by Partners Gold Company Inc.
- All Claims are royalty free

3. Near drill ready target – H2 2026

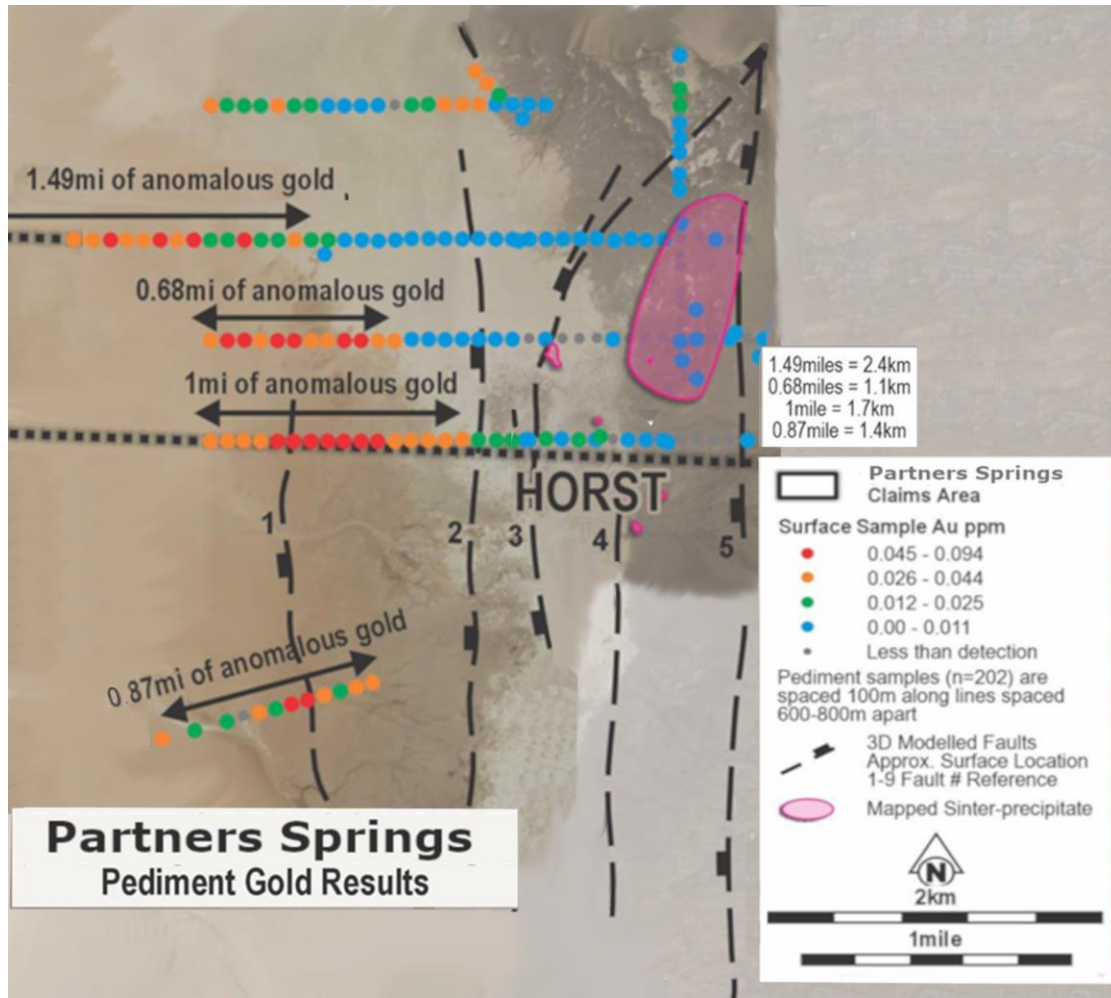

- NE, NW, N-S faults, horst and massive mafic dike evidence of deep mantle plumbing.
- Surface gold geochemistry has defined a large surface anomaly in clay with no prior drill testing for gold.
- Sinter at surface, evidence of surface epithermal system and underlying hydrothermal system.
- Modeled for geothermal exploration, never tested for gold.

4. Epithermal Gold Target

- Extensive gold discovered at surface; drilling required to test gold below surface.
- Structurally complex NE & NW intersecting faults, N-S normal extensional faults, massive mafic dike, regional tectonic lithological margin, geothermal-epithermal evidence of sinter mapped at surface.
- Gold may have moved upward along normal (extensional) faults and deposited near to surface at the interface of magmatic and meteoric water where pressure drops, temperature <250°, and pH changes, creating a gold flash point 14-16.5Ma(?)
- Space provided for fluids to reach upper crust by the intersection of structures i.e. where N-S, NE and NW faults intersect and the convection of geothermal hydrothermal fluids.
- Complex geology is in the right setting, a great place to find a big high grade gold deposit.

5. Excellent potential for large untested gold system – sleeping giant

- Miles of at-surface gold detected above normal extensional modelled faults forming a horst.
- Gold detected in majority of surface samples, few are below detection of gold, evidence of a potential large gold system.
- Further sampling and drill planning required to test for gold associated with the normal N-S faults, an analogue to Sleeper mine.
- Positive Au-As correlation, a good indicator of epithermal gold mineralization, same as Sleeper deposit.

2025 Samples submitted containing gold

6. Simple forward exploration program, seeking funding for 100 test holes, +/- 300ft, initial 20 holes to start.

- Infill surface sampling and submit samples to laboratory for gold and multi-element chemistry.
- Finalize drill targets targeting west dipping normal faults in close proximity to N-S, NE and NW intersecting structures.
- File drill permits and drill test as early as possible in 2026.

Exhibit A

The lands that are subject to this Agreement are in Northwestern Nevada. A description of the claims and a map showing these claims, and an outer boundary of the claims that will be the "Area of Interest," will be delivered to the Receiving Party promptly following the execution of this Agreement. The "Receiving Party" hereafter agrees not to acquire or cause to be acquired mining claims within the outer boundaries of this Area of Interest or AMI for a period of one year from the date this agreement or acquire claims or mineral leases of any kind, solar, wind, or geothermal on any adjacent or contiguous private lands for a period of two years from the date this Agreement is executed without the specific written consent of the Disclosing Party. The area of interest may be reduced if claims on the outer boundary are dropped. The area of interest may be enlarged if new claims are located and filed with the BLM that are contiguous with existing claims. In either event, a revised map will be provided in a timely fashion.
